Championship show:

For the championship show, there will be additional sections of junior and senior. Competitors will be sectioned into RESTRICTED and OPEN by the event team at the point of issuing times according to your qualification status.

Trailblazers

DRESSAGE

- Remains a two-round process.
- Riders scoring 58% or more will be eligible to buy a second-round qualification card.
- The 2nd round card purchased from you will be returned by the rider to Trailblazers for registration of their details.
  - Rider will then be emailed a Championship qualification form for the relevant level and horse stated on card.
- All venues which run dressage must also run one dressage second round scheduled between 1 April 2022 and 30 June 2022.
  - Second round date to be agreed with Trailblazers by 1 March 2022 to minimise clashes between venues in close proximity.
- At dressage second rounds top 6 in class qualify for Championships (see Dressage rules 11.2).
  - Venues sign off the form provided by rider to confirm horse/rider achieved a qualifying place.
  - Rider is responsible for returning form to Trailblazers.
  - Venues do not need to send in details of qualified riders after second rounds – less administration, though a copy of class results is helpful.
  - Trailblazers may contact venues for verification if results not posted on website in case of queries.

General Rules

HATS must be worn whenever mounted and up to the current safety standard.

ONLY Jockey skull hats without a peak (greater than 5mm smooth and rounded in nature) may be worn for cross country. Hat silks may be worn with flexible peak. It must also comply with safety standards for hats.
